DIARY NOTES

25X1A

DD/S [REDACTED]

2 November 1962

25X1A9a

1. I spent some time with [REDACTED] discussing the possibility of transferring a part of the A&E Staff of the Office of Training to the Technical Services Division. While I liked his objective approach, I was not sold that the proposed division of labor, i.e., agents to TSD and all others to the Medical Staff, is a logical one. (I am becoming more fearful that the testing function, which is done primarily on behalf of the Office of Personnel, would go down the drain under this concept.) H

2. Mr. Kirkpatrick advised me that the Director had seen the Attorney General last night, and apparently the subject of contributions to the McLean Volunteer Fire Department by the Agency came up. The Director wanted me to know that he was entirely sympathetic to the problem and hoped that we could eventually work out something. H

3. [REDACTED] and I met briefly with Mr. Kirkpatrick to bring him up to date on the deliberations of the Communications Subcommittee on which [REDACTED] is serving. Kirk said that he knew Bill Orrick quite well, and we urged him to contact Mr. Orrick to make clear that the privacy of our communications must be respected and that we would fight hard if he brought this up at the National Security Council Executive Committee Meeting. Kirk visited Mr. Orrick, had a most cordial reception, and was ensured that this matter would not be a bone of contention. (See Mr. Kirkpatrick's Memorandum for the Record dtd 2 November 1962.) H

4. Jim Garrison telephoned about a problem with the Department of Defense, which wishes to pick up certain equipment [REDACTED] on a loan basis - 25X1A if they use it, they will pay for it; if they don't, they will return it. I agreed with Jim that this posed a real resupply problem for us, depending on how long it took them to make up their minds. We finally agreed that, in view of the crisis, we would honor their requests with the understanding that they would be charged for material not returned within sixty days.
